TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. INTRODUCTION

Section A 3: Evaluation Process/ Criteria

The South African Health Products Regulatory Authority (SAHPRA / The Authority) is the regulatory authority responsible for the regulation of health products intended for human and animal use, the conduct of clinical trials, as well as the licensing of manufacturers, wholesalers, and distributors of medicines and medical devices, radiation emitting devices, and radioactive nuclides.

The legislative mandates of SAHPRA are derived from the Medicines and Related Substances Act, 1965 (Act No. 101 of 1965), as amended (herein after referred to as "the Medicines Act"), and other relevant legislation, regulations, and policies.

In terms of the Medicines Act, the objectives of the Authority are to provide for the monitoring, evaluation, regulation, investigation, inspection, registration, and control of medicines, scheduled substances, clinical trials, medical devices, and radiation emitting devices, and related matters that are in the public's interest.

SAHPRA transitioned into a public entity on 1 February 2018. Previously, the Authority was known as the Medicines Control Council (MCC), a sub-programme of the National Department of Health (NDOH).

2. PURPOSE

- 2.1. South African Health Products Regulatory (SAHPRA), invites suitably qualified and experienced Service Providers with national footprint to submit proposals for the implementation and management of an outsourced Employee Health and Wellness Program (EHWP).
- 2.2. The intention of this bid is to procure the services of a reputable Service Provider to provide Employee Health and Wellness services to support employee well-being in the workplace (in particular psychosocial services) with the focus to promote employee wellness and improve productivity.
- 2.3. This entails comprehensive Employee Health and Wellness service for SAHPRA employees and their family members. For this purpose, a "family member", in relation to any person, means his or her parent, sister, brother, child or spouse:
- a) Including a person living with that person as if they were married to each other,
- b) namely a life partner;
- c) Whether such relationship results from birth, marriage or adoption; including any other relative who resides permanently with that person; and
- d) Including any other relative who is of necessity dependent on such person;
- e) Family member is defined as a spouse, children and family members residing in the same household as the employee.

- 2.4. The purpose of the employee health and wellness programme is to;
- a) Meet the wellness needs of SAHPRA employees through preventative and curative measures.
- b) Promote the physical, social, emotional, occupational, spiritual, financial, and intellectual wellness of individuals.
- c) Create an organisational climate and culture that is conducive to wellness and effective identification of psycho-social health risks.
- d) Support work-life balance by implementing flexible wellness policies that accommodate employees work, personal and family responsibilities.

- e) Offer employees and their family members a 24-hour seven-day service a week service, access to telephonic, virtual, face-to-face counselling and referral services.
- 2.5. The EHWP services are intended to:
  - a) Adopt a holistic approach to managing employee health risk by aligning wellness, disease management programmes as well as rehabilitation and empowerment programmes. In partnership with SAHPRA, actively collaborate and participate in wellness days to provide on-site medical assessment and promote overall well-being for SAHPRA'S Pretoria, Durban and Cape Town offices for Employee Health and Wellness initiatives.
  - b) Support SAHPRA by minimising employee absenteeism due to psychosocial challenges by providing them with EHWP support service.
  - c) Assist individual employees and their family members in overcoming personal and work-related problems that are likely to affect their performance.
  - d) Assist SAHPRA to create a caring, healthy and safe working environment in which individual employees feel valued.
  - e) Enhance organisational performance by offering employees a robust support system that empowers them to reach their maximum potential and perform optimally.
  - f) Provide a professional EHWP which will respond with immediacy to the Psycho-social and Lifestyle Management needs of employees.
  - g) Support the department to manage health risk issues and involve the various stakeholders in the health risk management processes and structures.

3. PRINCIPLES

The Employee Health and Wellness Programme is underpinned by the following principles:

- 3.1. Employees utilizing the wellness programme are assured of confidentiality, except in cases of risk to self and others or in terms of legislation.
- 3.2. Only registered professionals will be allowed to provide therapeutic interventions.

- 3.3. As far as possible the generic principles of respect for autonomy, non-malpractice, beneficence, and distributive justice will guide the actions of all professionals providing the counselling service.
- 3.4. The programme focuses on all levels of employment and should also respond to the needs of designated employees such as people living with disabilities.
- 3.5. Coherence of models: the service delivery models should offer the same package of professional service to SAHPRA employees and their family members; and
- 3.6. Voluntary Participation: Employees and their family members' participation in the programme is voluntary and consensual.

4. SCOPE OF WORK AND SPECIFICATIONS

- 4.1. The prospective service provider is required to provide EHWP to all the employees of SAHPRA and their family members. SAHPRA currently has 331 employees with a projected growth of up to 400 by 2027.
- 4.2. Whilst SAHPRA has its National Office in Gauteng Province, there are other employees situated in Western Cape and Kwazulu-Natal Provinces, and port of entries/harbour (PE, OR Tambo, Durban and Cape Town); therefore, the service is expected to be accessible by all employees irrespective of their geographical area where they may be due to official business.

document management process. It is required from the Service Provider to maintain an electronic document management system, since it will be necessary to maintain the database as required, as well as for extracting reports for reporting purposes.

4.10. Back-Up and Archiving

Reporting and analysis will be dependent on data integrity and quality. It is therefore required that the Service Provider put adequate systems in place to preserve data and prevent data loss.

4.11. Data

Employee and organizational data that will be under the control of the Service Provider shall remain the property of the SAHPRA and the individual, respectively. The Service Provider shall not obtain any rights in such data.

The data in possession of the Service Provider or to which the Service Provider may have access during its contract with SAHPRFA, may only strictly be used in the performance of the services required from the Service Provider.

It is required that the Service Provider shall take reasonable precautions to preserve the integrity of the data and to prevent corruption or loss of such data.

If the said data is corrupted, lost, or sufficiently degraded to be unusable, due to any act or omission by the Service Provider, it must without delay take all steps to restore or procure the restoration of the relevant data. If the corruption, loss or degradation of the data is due to the default of the Service Provider, it will be liable for all costs and damages associated with such corruption, loss, degradation and restoration.

4.12. Data Security

SAHPRA Bid Document

management mechanisms, inclusive of the reporting schedules and formats stipulated in the Service Level Agreement.

4.17. Staffing

The Service Provider shall provide the personnel necessary to supply the services and service levels specified in the proposal and contained in the terms of reference and shall ensure that it possesses or has access to knowledge and sufficient expertise and staff to enable it to provide the required services in accordance with the agreed service levels.

Service Providers are to submit with their proposal the Curriculum Vitas and proof of registration with the applicable professional bodies, including that of senior and junior personnel to be allocated to the project.

4.18. Implementation

It is expected that the Service Provider shall acquaint itself with SAHPRA and operation of the geographical area and the staff complements within the particular geographical area.

4.19. Transfer of Skills

The Employee Health and Wellness Industry utilises skills not commonly available in the labour market and therefore we expect the successful service provider to impart skills to the Authority.

4.20. Reporting Arrangements, Time-frames and Assignment Deliverables:

The Service Provider must produce a comprehensive report to SAHPRA on its trends, including interventions on a monthly, quarterly and annual basis.

The monthly written progress report must be provided to SAHPRA on the second day after the reporting month.

The quarterly written progress reports must be provided to SAHPRA within five (5) working days of the last day preceding the reporting quarter. For this purpose, the quarters that shall apply are January to March; April to June; July to September and October to December.
